

Campaign Against Child Labour West Bengal

Case of Rajib Momin

Rajib Momin, a 15 years old boy from a remote village of Malda District of West Bengal works in Carpet weaving sector. He is engaged in this job since last two years. He lost his father early and as the eldest son of the family came under the responsibility to look after his mother and younger siblings. So he works every day for 12 hours from 6am morning to 6pm evening.

He is enrolled in school in class IV but never manage time for study. Presently his school remain closed for last 14 months due to corona pandemic. He wish that if her working hour could be reduced he could get more time for his study.

He has a dream to join army. He want government should make opportunity for him to staty and also help him in building his own house.
